

SO, WHERE IS THE ULTIMATE VIEW?

The prophet Isaiah (under the influence of the Holy Spirit) wrote about Jerusalem and things happening at the time he was living on earth, but also wrote about future times and places. One place he spoke about was the New Jerusalem. The place is described as being made of gold and precious jewels which reflect the colors of each stone. The New Jerusalem has no need for the sun or the moon to shine in it, because the Glory of the God illuminates it. "The Lamb is its light." Rev 21:23

God's desire is for all of us to be one with Him, His Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit in this city, the New Jerusalem, forever. How? All we need to do is ask Him. Then, believe and receive His forgiveness.

WHAT ELSE SHOULD I KNOW?

Just say: Jesus, come into my heart. Your word (the Bible) says that you have paid the debt for my sins and my way into Heaven. You did this by shedding your blood and dying on the Cross in my place. Please forgive me for what I have done in my life. Right now, I receive you as my Savior and my Lord. I thank you for what you have done for me. I look forward to spending eternity with you in Heaven and being in the New Jerusalem with you.

Amen.

If you prayed this prayer, you will never be alone again. Jesus will be with you. Call on Him anytime and anyplace and He will help you through anything that life brings your way. To get to know Him better, read His love letter to you, the Bible. Start by reading the New Testament books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Ask Him to help you understand His Word (the Bible). Ask Him to guide you in your daily life. Depend on Him to be there every day, through everything that you go through. He said that He will "never leave you or forsake you." (Hebrews 13:5).

Jesus promised to send you someone to comfort you and help you through the hard things of life. "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."(John 14:26)

The Ultimate View

Majestic Views Proclaiming

HOW LOVELY ARE THE MOUNTAINS...

SEEKING THE ULTIMATE VIEW

The quest to discover the ultimate view drives people to push themselves to the limit in incredible climbs to places like Mt Everest, or Mt Rainier, or MT Kilimanjaro. If people can't hike, they will drive up steep elevations to the mountain outlook to see the view. Others will drive to the rim of the Grand Canyon to look up and down and view the majesty held there. There is even a see-thru viewing ledge that has been built out over the canyon for viewing the beauty of the Colorado River 5000 feet below. At that height, the river below looks like a trickling brook. In Maine, the elevation of the "Height of the Land" vista does not have that elevation, but the view of the spectacular sunset on the horizon on a clear day is beyond words. The drive to see or climb such heights is in everyone's heart. Why? Every person has an internal and eternal spirit within themselves from the beginning.

THE QUEST TO SEE AND ENJOY

The quest for the Ultimate of views comes to us in various locations and elevations. One might require a difficult climb of 29,035 feet to the summit of Mt Everest. Others find the same level of beauty and satisfaction at much lower elevations such as Hacker's Hill in Maine sitting at 753 ft. The two extremes of elevation, each with their own amazing panoramic views support the same spirit of curiosity, inquiry and seeking in the quest.

THE SPIRIT OF INQUIRY AND CURIOSITY

This spirit of inquiry and curiosity is not taught externally in a public school curriculum, a military boot camp, or in colleges. It is an internal gift from God, the Creator. The desire is placed in us not only to seek these external world views, but it is also created in us in the womb to seek Him. In other words, the spirit of inquiry as well as a measure of faith was given to us by God (the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit). Biblical characters demonstrated their quests as revealed from the first book of the Bible (Genesis) through the last book (Revelation).

THE QUEST TO KNOW

All of these majestic views proclaim the Glory, the Power, and the Majesty of God. The Holy Spirit tugs on our heart using this spirit of inquiry to know God and acknowledge Him in everything we do. The majesty of God the Creator spans the summit of Mt Everest 29,035 feet up and down to the depths of the Mariana Trench 36,069 feet below sea level. God created man in His own image."Let us make man in Our image according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. So God created male and female He created them. Then God blessed them and said to them to be fruitful and multiply."(Gen 1: 26-28).

OUR ULTIMATE VIEW

As beautiful and breathtaking as the views are from the mountaintops of this earth, the ultimate view that mankind can behold is to see and acknowledge the Creator in all of the creation, all of our views and to focus on the Glory, Majesty and Creativity of the Master Creator, the builder of our souls. Our inner man (which is the eternal spirit within us) when we die will either live forever with God or without Him. He has promised those who believe in Him will live with him in Heaven which is described as the most beautiful place which holds The Ultimate View in full majesty.

GOD'S PERSONAL VIEW OF US

Throughout the Bible, God used all different kinds of people to proclaim His views, His Grace, for all mankind. There was no discrimination. None of the people He used were perfect in the way we think about perfection, like not having any flaws or imperfections. God's definition of perfect is the reflection of His Son Jesus in us (Christ in us the hope of Glory). This type of transformation in us as flawed and broken human beings happens through the Holy Spirit when we choose to believe in Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross of Calvary when we accept what He did by faith. You don't have to climb mountains to invite God into your life. You just have to ask God (the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit) to come in and stay in your life. Jesus is waiting for you to ask.
